

Goal Progress

UF Office of the Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer

UF Office of Real Estate

GOAL

Goal #1: Professionally support University real estate initiatives by cultivating productive working relationships and infrastructures across the entire University enterprise and within the City, County and State.

Goal #2: Manage existing and future University real estate holdings to fully maximize cost savings, value creation, functionality, and positive impacts to the community.

Goal #3: Facilitate targeted property acquisition and value-enhanced disposition opportunities for the University by maintaining a thorough and dynamic understanding of the real estate market, ultimately achieving a real estate strategy that aligns with the University's mission and long-term vision.
